Join other parents and kids as we discuss this book and what it means to us. We will have cookies and lemonade.

Thursday, December 6 Make an
UGLY HOLIDAY SWEATER!

We will use LEDs to bling out an old sweater! You must be able to sew a bit. Also, bring a sweater.

Tuesday, December 11, 6-7 PM for girls ages 8—18 and their parents!

Girls Who Code Clubs Kickoff Party!*

We will give you all the info you need to sign up your girl for Coding classes at the Fairhope Library. We will have snacks and the parents will get information about the program while the girls work on a fun, hands-on coding activity. In addition to coding, girls who enroll in the free club will learn other skills like leadership, collaboration, creativity, and project management. There are two clubs, one for girls in grades 3rd—5th and another for girls in grades 8th—12th. These clubs are sponsored by Girls Who Code, a non-profit organization dedicated to closing the gender gap in technology and preparing girls for 21st century opportunities.
